

Allard Law International Justice and Human Rights Clinic

Law Student Application 2017-2018

To complete your application, please submit this form, your CV, and your law transcript via email to Nicole Barrett and Julie Hunter (barrett@allard.ubc.ca & hunter@allard.ubc.ca) by March 1, 2017. Please use subject header "IJHR Clinic Application." Depending on application volume, you may be contacted for a brief interview.

|                              |                |
|------------------------------|----------------|
| Name                         |                |
| Entering Year(2L/3L/LLM) |                |
| Email                        |                |
| Telephone Number             | Cell:Home: |

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

|  |  |
|--|--|
| Why do you want to join the IJHR Clinic?               |  |
| Related Work/Volunteer Experience                      |  |
| Specific International Justice/Human Rights Interest/s |  |
| Other Languages Spoken                                 |  |
| Prior relevant coursework (Please specify)             |  |

Please note:

- Students must sign up for the full-year clinic and may not drop the course after the first class meeting.
- While there are no obligatory course prerequisites, prior coursework or experience in international human rights, international criminal law or international humanitarian law is helpful.
- There is space for 8-10 students.

For more information, please contact the IJHR Clinic Director, Nicole Barrett, at barrett@allard.ubc.ca