

Peter A. Allard School of Law
University of British Columbia

Lecturer

The Peter A. Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia invites applications for a full-time lecturer position. The successful candidates will be assigned teaching and administrative duties, including specific responsibilities for supporting students in the LLMCL program. More information on the LLMCL can be found here: <http://www.allard.ubc.ca/master-laws-llm-common-law-program>.

The successful applicant will:

- Teach the equivalent of six courses in a twelve-month period, at least two of which will be in the LLMCL program. Some teaching will take place during the May – August summer term.
- Serve as the faculty lead for students in the LLMCL program, with responsibilities for advising students on aspects of course selection and their academic program (career counselling is not included in this role)
- Some of the teaching load may include developing new courses in our distance learning program, and teaching in the distance learning program.

Preference will be given to applicants with teaching experience in at least two of the following areas: Canadian Public Law, Canadian private law, public international law.

The appointment will commence August 1, 2018 and will conclude on July 31, 2019 with a salary commensurate with the qualifications and responsibilities. In keeping with the faculty collective agreement, this lecturer position has the potential of renewal for two consecutive years.

WHO WE ARE

The Allard School of Law offers varied and rigorous professional programs to a talented and diverse student body in JD, LL.M. and Ph.D. programs. Situated within an outstanding public university, and located in one of the most open, diverse and beautiful cities in the world, we offer an inspiring environment for legal scholars and students to study law and its role in society, and to make a contribution to improving lives in our local communities, across Canada, and around the world. More information on the Peter A. Allard School of Law is available at www.allard.ubc.ca and <http://www.allard.ubc.ca/about-us/allard-school-law-strategic-plan-2016-2021>.

QUALIFICATIONS

An LL.B., J.D. or equivalent law degree and teaching experience are required. A Ph.D. or other graduate training in law or related disciplines is preferred. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applicants should submit (1) a cover letter indicating interest in the position and information describing specific qualifications, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) the names of three referees, and (4) evidence of teaching effectiveness, such as a summary of teaching evaluations, if available. Complete applications should be submitted by 4:30pm, on June 30, 2018 to the attention of:

Dean Catherine Dauvergne
c/o Rosanna Falbo
Peter A. Allard School of Law
1822 East Mall
Vancouver, BC, V6T 1Z1
e-mail: falbo@allard.ubc.ca

UBC hires on the basis of merit, is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community, and seeks to recruit candidates with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities. We especially welcome applications from visible minority group members, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.